

3rd GRADE CAREER CLUSTERS

Energy

Programs in this cluster prepare students for careers in planning, managing, and providing support and technical services related to the generation, transmission, and distribution of various types of energy; in addition to engineering design, construction, maintenance, and repair of these systems

Hospitality & Tourism

Programs in this cluster prepare students for employment in career pathways that relate to families and human needs such as restaurant and food/beverage services, lodging, travel and tourism, recreation, amusement, and attractions.

Human Services

Programs in this cluster prepare students for employment in career pathways that relate to families and human needs such as counseling and mental health services, family and community services, personal care and consumer services.

